

Are You Waiting Just For Me?

Written by Ernest Tubb

chorus: Are you waiting just for me my darling?
While I'm far across the deep blue sea,
Or have you found someone else my darling?
Please tell me are you waiting just for me?

1. While I'm writing you tonight my darling,
There's such a burning deep within my breast,
I know you promised that you would be faithful,
Well tell me honey have you stood the test?

chorus:

2. You've never given me a cause to doubt you,
You have always been so true and kind,
But my spirits keep on sinking lower,
Fearing that a new love you will find.
