

Beautiful Brown Eyes

Written by Alton Delmore, Arthur Smith & Jerry Capehart

1. Beautiful brown eyes, I love you,
Love you with all of my heart,
Tomorrow we were to be married,
But liquor has kept us apart.

chorus: Beautiful, beautiful brown eyes,
Beautiful, beautiful brown eyes,
Beautiful, beautiful brown eyes,
I'll never love blue eyes again.

2. Into the barroom he stumbled,
And fell in a heap by the door,
And the very last words that he uttered were,
"I'll never get drunk anymore".

3. Seven long years I've been married,
Wish I was single again,
A woman never really knows trouble,
Until she has married a man.
