

Behind These Prison Walls of Love

Written by William Bolick & Hazel Hope Jarrard

---

1. Behind these prison walls of love dear,
Forever more I know I'll be,
Condemned because you love another,
No one will ever set me free.

chorus 1: In my heart sweet memories linger,
Of the days when you were mine,
Behind these prison walls of love dear,
Visions of the past entwine.

solo:

2. Perhaps my love for you seems strange dear,
But it's all I'll ever know,
So I'll content myself with mem'ries,
If it pleases you to go.

chorus 2: Just remember precious darling,
When we face the judge above,
All my vows will be unbroken,
Behind these prison walls of love.
