

Blue Days, Black Nights

Written by Ben Hall

- 1. Blue days, black nights, blue tears keep on fallin',
For you dear, now you are gone.
Blue days, black nights, my heart keeps on callin',
For you dear, and you alone.

bridge: Mem'ries of you make me sorry,
I gave you reason to doubt me.
But now you're gone and I am left here all alone,
With blue memories, I think of you.

- 2. Blue days, black nights, I didn't realise,
I would miss you, the way I do.
And now, somehow, I know I will pay,
For the times I have made you blue.
