

Don't Let Your Deal Go Down

Written by Wayne P. Walker, Louise Certain, Gladys Stacey & Jerry Organ

- 1. Well, I've been all around this whole wide world,
Been down to sunny Alabama,
My mama always told me, "Son,
Never let your deal go down".

chorus: Oh honey don't let your deal go down,
Don't let your deal go down,
Oh honey don't let your deal go down,
'til your last gold dollar is gone.

- 2. Well, the last time I seen that gal of mine,
She was standing in the door,
She said "Honey I'll be a long time gone, You'll never see your gal no more".

chorus:

- 3. Well, I'm going down the railroad track,
Gonna take my rocking chair,
If these doggone blues don't leave my mind,
I'm gonna rock away from here.
