

Dreams

Written by Del McCoury

1. I had a dream of you the other night dear,
A dream I could not live in true life I fear,
You talked with a friend of mine so lovingly,
Oh G-d, oh G-d, a crazy dream please let it be.

chorus: Dreams, dreams of you dear,
Tears, tears are so sincere,
Love, love that I can't hide,
These dreams are breakin' down all my pride.

2. While music played he danced and held you, oh, so tight,
The same way we did when our love was young and bright,
Then he kissed you under lights that were so dim,
I couldn't stand to see you there alone with him.

chorus:

3. I realize a dream is only fantasy,
But tell me why these dreams seem so real to me,
Every night I have this same old misery,
I guess it's just because of all my jealousy.

chorus:
