

(Somebody Robbed) The Glendale Train

Written by John Dawson

chorus: Somebody robbed the Glendale train,
This morning at half past nine,
Somebody robbed the Glendale train,
And I swear I ain't lyin',
They made clean off with sixteen G's,
And left two men lyin' cold,
Somebody robbed the Glendale train,
And they made off with the gold.

- 1. Charlie Jones was the engineer,
He had twenty years on the line,
He kissed his wife at the station gate,
This morning six thirty-five,
Everything went fine until half past nine,
When Charlie looked up and saw,
There were men with horses and men with guns,
And no sign of the law.

chorus:

- 2. Amos Wise was the baggage man,
And he dearly loved his job,
The company they rewarded him,
With a golden watch and fob,
Amos Wise was a markin' time,
When the door blew off his car,
They found Amos Wise in fifteen pieces,
Fifteen miles apart.
